Presidents Message

Dear Members:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!! to all our members and all their fury friends. I hope you all had a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! It was nice to be home for a few days and spend time with all my babies, family and friends.

As we move into the New Year I would love to see everyone support the club with your attendance at our meetings, specialty, fun match and other functions throughout the year. Having friends with the same interest is so important. I can speak from experience – when there are situations in your life that are tuff to get through the dog community will be there to support you if you have the connection with your peers that all-breed and breed clubs provide to you.

I know everyone got the email from Mark that Wess Sherrill passed away on January 3, 2012. Please have his family in your prayers. Wes was an active member of our club for many years and he will be greatly missed. There will be a memorial service in Atlanta; Mark will send details to the membership as we have more information.

The closing date for our eleventh annual specialty show is January 18th. This is an Onofrio show so everyone please enter your dogs and support the club and the show. This show will be in Atlanta, GA on Thursday February 2nd in conjunction with the Griffin Kennel Club. It will be at the Atlanta Expo Center South with judges; Lori Isenhath-Gordon (Dovetail Cavaliers) judging our conformation classes and Juniors and Shirley Henry (Shirmont Cavaliers) judging our Sweepstakes. We will have delicious ringside snacks during lunch and a dinner and auction on Friday night at the Hilton Atlanta Airport. All of our judges have been breeding, showing and judging our wonderful breed for many years. This will be a great time for us to watch beautiful dogs and visit with our friends.

Here are Oliver, Rosalita, and Scarlett with my 5-week old son Cameron!

Holiday Party in December; Paula presenting the MOTY award to Mark.

I want to thank everyone ahead of time for all they do to make our shows a success. Without the folks that put in endless hours, we could not put on the caliber of shows we do.

I hope everyone plans to support our specialty with their time, donations and entries. Anyone that has a donation for the auction please contact Holly Majka Brookins at 404.580.4498 or hmajka1@yahoo.com.

Information about our meetings, speakers, and events for all our functions can be found on the Website at

Your Duck is Dead-- A woman brought a very limp duck into a veterinary surgeon. As she laid her pet on the table, the vet pulled out his stethoscope and listened to the bird's chest. After a moment or two, the vet shook his head and sadly said, "I'm sorry, your duck, Cuddles, has passed away." The distressed woman wailed, "Are you sure?" "Yes, I am sure. Your duck is dead," replied the vet.. "How can you be so sure?" she protested. "I mean you haven't done any testing on him or anything. He might just be in a coma or something." The vet rolled his eyes, turned around and left the room. He returned a few minutes later with a black Labrador Retriever. As the duck's owner looked on in amazement, the dog stood on his hind legs, put his front paws on the examination table and sniffed the duck from top to bottom. He then looked up at the vet with sad eyes and shook his head. The vet patted the dog on the head and took it out of the room. A few minutes later he returned with a cat. The cat jumped on the table and also delicately sniffed the bird from head to foot. The cat sat back on its haunches, shook its head, meowed softly and strolled out of the room. The vet looked at the woman and said, "I'm sorry, but as I said, this is most definitely, 100% certifiably, a dead duck." The vet turned to his computer terminal, hit a few keys and produced a bill, which he handed to the woman.. The duck's owner, still in shock, took the bill. "$150!" she cried, " $150 just to tell me my duck is dead!" The vet shrugged, "I'm sorry. If you had just taken my word for it, the bill would have been $20, but with the Lab Report and the Cat Scan, it's now $150." You know the drill ... if you're smiling, you must pass it on, give someone else a smile too! Share the laughter
